"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find it cures all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."
Dr. W. N. WALKER, 1219 Third Street, St. Louis, Mo., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

OUR NATURAL GAS SUPPLY

AWAKENING A KEEN INTEREST IN SCIENTIFIC CIRCLES.

It was first used at Fredonia, New York, More than Sixty Years Ago—Where it May and May Not Be Found—What Professor Leslie Says on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The recent discovery of natural gas, and the practical uses to which it is being put in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, is awakening a keen interest in scientific circles here, and the reports from those competent to report upon the subject are looked for with a great deal of interest. The subject is now being carefully studied by experts, and before many months the geological survey expects to have some new and valuable information on the subject.

What will be the extent, duration and practical value of the gas producing field is a subject of great interest. Add, it may as well be admitted, it is a subject about which the geologists and scientific people generally know very little as yet. Where it comes from, where and how it was formed, whether its production is yet going on down in nature's great laboratory, how long it is going to last, under what parts of the country and the surface of the earth generally it is found, all are subjects of great uncertainty and grave concern. It is a curious fact, too, that in the very sections and cities where natural gas is to-day so abundant and creating so much excitement, its existence has been known for many years and been utilized in a quiet way for a decade, or quarter of a century, or even longer. In Findlay, O., natural gas has been known to exist since its settlement, and was met with in digging cellars and wells, and found in springs and rock crevices. In 1838, almost a full half century ago, it was utilized in a small way for lighting a residence or two in the village, and has been so utilized ever since.

The earliest use of natural gas for practical purposes in this country is that at Fredonia, N. Y., where natural gas was found escaping from rock crevices and springs when the Holland land company made its survey. In 1821 a well was sunk to the depth of twenty-seven feet, for the purpose of gathering some of this escaping gas, and was utilized with iron pipes with small holes at the side for its escape. Burned in this way it made a flame "about equal to two candles." By 1824, the date of Lafayette's visit, the enterprise had progressed so far that the town was lighted with natural gas on the occasion of his visit. Probably the first reported discovery of natural gas was in the Kanawha valley, where it is just now, a century later, being rediscovered.

The earliest explorers of the Kanawha valley found "marsh gas," the modern natural gas, issuing from springs, and it is related that Washington, in locating lands deeded him for his military services, found, a "burning spring," which he proposed to deed for public uses, but which, through some informality, was never completed. Nearly a half century ago natural gas was used for boiling salt in the Kanawha Valley. In Illinois, where the gas excitement has blazed up so vigorously of late, there have been natural gas wells for over thirty years, the first having been utilized as early as 1855. The latest work on the subject, by the geological survey, says: "In general, it may be said that natural gas is found in varying quantities all through the territory from the Hudson river on the east to California on the west. In New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin, Kansas, Colorado, Dakota, Utah, Wyoming and California its existence is reported."

Where can it be found in paying quantities? Ah, that is another question. This same work discussing this same question, remarks that it is almost impossible to put down the drill anywhere in the state of Ohio without finding natural gas in greater or less quantities, but adds: "Outside of the localities in which the Berea grit and Trenton limestone have been found the gas is produced in very small quantities. Perhaps the most suggestive and instructive statement in regard to 'surface indications' is that made by Professor Leslie touching Pennsylvania. In answer to the question: 'Shall I bore for gas at my works?' he says:

"First of all—There can be no gas stored up in the oldest rocks. This settles the question in the negative for the whole southeastern third of Pennsylvania. To bore for gas in Bucks, Philadelphia, Delaware counties, would be simply absurd."

"Second—There can be no gas left under ground where the old rocks have been turned up on edge and overturned, fractured and recombed, faulted and disturbed in a thousand ways. If there ever was any, it has long since found innumerable ways of escape into the atmosphere. This settles the question for all the counties of the great valley, as anyone can see by looking at the present condition of their limestone, slate and sandstone formations."

"Third—There is not the least chance that any gas is left under ground in the greatly folded, crushed and hardened formations of the middle belt of the state. Where the oil and gas rocks rise to the surface in these counties they show that all their oil and gas have escaped long ago."

Where the rock formations lie approximately horizontal and have remained nearly undisturbed over extensive areas, in all the counties west of the Alleghenies, there is always a chance of finding gas, if not oil, at some depth beneath the surface, determined by the particular formation which appears at the surface."

"Fifth—Wherever the bituminous coal beds have been changed into anthracite or semi-bituminous coal it is reasonable to suppose that the same agency which produced the change, whatever it was, must have acted on the whole column of formations, including any possible gas rock at any depth."

"Sixth—Wherever rock oil has been found there and in the surrounding region rock gas is sure to exist."

CINCINNATI, May 7.—Richard Hellman, aged twenty-eight, living with his wife and three children at 1813 Spring street, Covington, was fatally injured internally by falling from the third story of a new building on Court street, near Walnut last evening. He was taken to the city hospital.

WEST VIRGINIA'S NEW SENATOR.

Judge Charles James Faulkner is Elected to Succeed Senator Camden.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 7.—Charles James Faulkner, of Martinsburg, has been elected United States senator to succeed Senator Camden. He received forty-eight votes. Judge Faulkner is a son of the late Charles James Faulkner, who represented Virginia and West Virginia in the congress of the United States before the late war, and served as minister to France under the administration of President Buchanan. The senator-elect was born in Martinsburg, Berkeley county, West Virginia, where he now resides, and is about forty years of age and in full vigor of manhood. He is a lawyer by profession.

He was elected judge of the Thirteenth judicial circuit, comprising Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan counties, this state, and has held the office up to this time. He is considered one of the ablest judges in the state, and is universally popular with all classes. Mr. Faulkner is not wealthy, but has a comfortable home, and is in fair circumstances. He has held aloof from all factional fights in his party, never having been mixed up in any coal and railroad monopolistic schemes. He is truly a pure man in all actions and a hard worker in his profession. He graduated in the law school of the University of Virginia in 1867, and carried off the prizes in his class.

Senator Lucas, Governor Wilson's appointee from West Virginia, will contest Judge Faulkner's right to the seat, holding the legislature was not authorized to elect a senator at its extra session. Senator Sherman says Lucas' point is a new one, but is upheld by West Virginia's constitution.

Freaks of an Insane Woman.

BOSTON, May 7.—Willie Joyce, six years old, was killed a few days ago on the track of the Boston & Providence road, near his home, in the Highland district. The bereavement drove the lad's mother almost insane. Yesterday afternoon she collected a large bag of stones and carried them to the railroad just before the train which had killed her boy was due. She took her stand in the middle of the track, and when the train came in sight she began wailing, waving her arms around in the air and crying: "Oh, God! My Willie." The engineer whistled sharply, and then, seeing that no heed was paid to the warning, he reversed the lever and stopped the train just before it reached her. In the meantime the woman had fallen in a dead faint directly across the track. She was carried away, and when restored to consciousness she said she had gone to the track to stone the train which had killed her boy.

Reunion of the Army of the Potomac.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 7.—Gen. M. T. McMahon, the president, and Col. S. Truesdell, the treasurer, of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, arrived in town last night to make arrangements for the reunion of members of that society which will be held in Saratoga on June 23 and 24. The gentlemen are the guests of Col. H. S. Clement during their stay here. It is probable that the coming reunion will be the most successful ever had. President Cleveland, Gen. Sheridan, Gen. Sherman, Gen. Sickles and other distinguished men, besides several military organizations of the state, such as the Sixty-ninth regiment, the Old Guard, the Albany Burgess corps and Doring's military band of Troy, will be in attendance. The headquarters of the society will be at Congress hall. The citizens' executive committee will meet to-morrow evening to appoint sub-committees and prepare for the event.

Shooting in a Street Car.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 7.—A difficulty occurred in a street car yesterday evening, between L. B. Suggs, president of the Memphis cotton exchange, and M. C. Pearce, a leading wholesale grocery merchant, in which the latter drew a knife and the former a pistol, and fired one shot, but without effect. A perfect stampede of the passengers occurred. Friends separated the belligerents and no one was hurt. Suggs and Pearce were formerly partners, and the difficulty is due to ill-feeling engendered by a law suit arising from the dissolution of the firm, which was yesterday morning decided against Pearce. Suggs was placed under $1,000 bond for shooting with intent to kill.

Freight Train Wrecked by a Land Slide.

ST. LOUIS, May 7.—On Wednesday night a freight train on the St. Louis & Iron Mountain railroad, bound south was thrown from the track by a land slide near Cliff station. Six cars were buried out of sight. The engineer and fireman escaped. Two men, John O'Malley, of St. Louis, and an unknown, who were in one of the box cars, were buried beneath the debris, and when exhumed were dead. The damage will reach $5,000. All trains were delayed twenty-four hours.

WASHINGTON DISPATCHES

PETITIONS RECEIVED AT THE INTER-STATE HEADQUARTERS.

Several Railroads Urge the Suspension of the Long and Short Haul Clause of the New Law—Presidential Appointments. Reducing Expenses—National Notes.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—A petition was received at the interstate commerce commission headquarters to-day from the New York Central & Hudson river, the Lake Shore & Michigan and the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad companies, urging a suspension of the long and short haul clause of the new law, so as to allow them to compete with the Pennsylvania and its affiliated lines for freight and passenger traffic between Pittsburgh, Youngstown, O., and points in New York and the eastern states.

The petitioners represent that the rates over the Pennsylvania road and its connections to these eastern points by reason of the shorter distance, is in many instances lower than that over the petitioners' lines. They represent that in order to compete for the traffic it is necessary to meet the rates charged by the Pennsylvania road, and make the rates on through business lower than their rates from Youngstown and intermediate points to the east, although the distance is greater.

Contract Awarded.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The postmaster general has awarded to the Holyoke, Mass., Envelope company, the contract for supplying the postoffice department with registered packages and other official envelopes for the next fiscal year, at $84,143.79. WASHINGTON, May 7.—Secretary Whitney has decided to have the old battle ship Hartford, repaired at San Francisco.

Found Out After Many Years.

ANNISTON, May 7.—The flight from his home, in St. Clair county, of Josephus Compton, a member of the legislature, suggests a chapter from the life of Kissane. Thirteen years ago, while making moonshine whiskey in North Carolina, Compton shot and killed a revenue officer. He was sentenced to twenty-four years imprisonment, but escaped after four years. He came to Eden, a Methodist minister, and at the last election was sent to the legislature, distinguishing himself chiefly by his passion for liquor. While superintending a gang of laborers recently on a railroad contract which he had undertaken, he was recognized by the foreman, an ex-guard of the North Carolina penitentiary, who communicated the fact to the governor of North Carolina. The necessary papers were issued, but Compton learned of danger and fled.

Desperate Attempt at Suicide.

BOSTON, May 7.—Oscar B. Farnham, fifty years of age, a member of the firm of Holt, Adams & Co., teamsters of this city, made a desperate effort at suicide in a room in the United States hotel this morning. After swallowing a dose of "Rough on Rats" he hung himself with a necktie to a gas fixture and turned on the gas. He became unconscious and his weight broke the gas fixture. The smell caused by the escaping gas attracted the attention of the watchman who broke open the door. Farnham was taken to the hospital, where it was said he would die. It is stated by the firm that Farnham is an embezzler to the extent of about $2,000. Yesterday he was pressed for explanations of certain transactions, but refused to give them.

A Gigantic Co-Operative Scheme.

BOSTON, May 7.—A member of the Cigar-makers' International union says that a scheme is being considered by that body which, if successful, will give the cigar-makers less work and more pay, at the same time providing consumers with good cigars at a minimum price. It is proposed that the government loan the union $75,000,000 for a period of fifteen years at 10 per cent. per annum, for co-operative purposes. If this is done five immense factories will be erected, one each in New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Richmond and Key West. It is estimated that these factories would employ 65,000 cigar-makers, 5,000 packers, 30,000 strippers, 1,000 clerks and 500 foremen.

A Duel Without Seconds.

NEW ORLEANS, May 7.—A dispatch from Jackson, Miss., to the Picayune, says: "A fatal shooting affray occurred on Capital street last night between Col. Jones Hamilton, the lessee of the penitentiary, and R. D. Gambrill, editor of the Sword and Shield, of this city. Mr. Gambrill received several shots in the head, killing him almost instantly. Col. Hamilton is mortally wounded, having been shot through the body. An article in the Sword and Shield reflecting on Col. Hamilton's private and public character led to the affair."

Gas Well Explosion.

MORRISVILLE, N. Y., May 7.—The Test oil well near Morrisville, when a depth of 500 feet was reached, exploded to-day, several ladies and gentlemen barely escaping injury. THE DEAD PHILANTHROPIST.

Extensive Preparations Being Made for the Funeral of Washington C. De Pauw.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., May 7.—The remains of Washington C. De Pauw, who died in Chicago yesterday, reached this city this evening at 7:45. Extensive preparations are being made for the obsequies, which will not take place until Monday; to await the arrival of a son, Charles W., from Mexico, where he was sent to look after his father's mining interests. The family will have immediate charge of the burial, but will be assisted by the Masons and Odd Fellows, of which Mr. De Pauw was a prominent member. All public buildings in New Albany are being draped in mourning, and flags were lowered to half-mast last night on receipt of the news announcing Mr. De Pauw's death. The body has been embalmed and will lie in state over Sunday and be viewed by the public. Many prominent men in this and other states have accepted invitations to attend the funeral, which undoubtedly will be the largest ever witnessed in Southern Indiana.

In the death of this distinguished citizen and benefactor New Albany sustains a severe loss. Had it not been for him, the city would not have enjoyed the manufacturing notoriety it does to-day. Greencastle, Ind., also loses her greatest benefactor. A delegation of students from De Pauw university, of that city, endowed by deceased with cash gifts aggregating $1,000,000, will attend the funeral.

A public welcome will be tendered Mr. O'Brien Wednesday evening at a mass meeting in the Cooper Union, at which Mayor Hewitt has been invited to preside.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 7.—George B. Peck, whose mother lives in Onondaga county, New York, committed suicide in front of the residence of W. H. Dodge, a well-to-do farmer, two miles north of Elkhorn, Wis., to-day. It seems that Peck married Dodge's daughter a year ago while she was teaching school at Wyoming, N. Y., against the wishes of the young lady's parents. A separation was brought about, and Peck went to Michigan. He appeared at Dodge's house and after an unsatisfactory interview with his wife took his life in her presence.

Is to Get Another Appointment.

NEW YORK, May 7.—It is reported that Rev. A. J. Donnelly, pastor of St. Michael's church, is to be appointed by Archbishop Corrigan as vicar general of his diocese in place of the late Manager Quinn. Father Donnelly came into prominence recently as the successor of Father McGlynn at St. Stephen's church. He did not succeed in making himself popular with the parishioners and was soon returned by the archbishop to his old pastorate of St. Michael's. He is sixty-seven years old, and a native of Ireland.

Suicided in a Cellar.

CINCINNATI, May 7.—George Protheter, aged fifty, residing with his wife and six children, at 640 Race street, where he also carries on a notion business, suicided at an early hour this morning in the cellar under his store by blowing off the top of his head with a double-barreled shotgun. A Blind Man Convicted of Murder.

TIFFIN, O., May 7.—The jury in the case of J. G. McWilliams, charged with uttering forged checks, brought in a verdict of guilty this morning, and Judge Pendleton sent him up for five years. The judge also overruled the motion for a new trial in the Gaines (blind man) murder case, which was decided last night, and Gaines was sentenced to state penitentiary for life. This is probably the first case in history where a totally blind man has been convicted of murder.

Senator Edmunds sent a letter expressing sympathy with the aspirations of Ireland, but deprecating any use of violent methods for their realization.

Declines to Run for Governor.

CLEVELAND, May 7.—Congressman Foran, replying to a letter from Hon. John McBride, declines to allow his name to be used in connection with the Democratic nomination for governor. He understands his election to congress to be a contract between himself and the people of this district, and feels in honor bound to abide by its implied terms and serve his constituents, as they have designated, in the National house of representatives.

Took Muriatic Acid.

CINCINNATI, May 7.—William Aspenleiter, a machinist, aged forty, of 181 Clifton avenue, suicided at 9 o'clock last night at his home, in the absence of his wife and two children, by swallowing a dose of muriatic acid. He died at 1:30 a. m. Domestic unhappiness and inability to procure employment were the causes. He formerly worked as Bullock's chair factory in Fairmount, but was discharged two weeks ago.

The county levy in Madison County has been fixed at only 16 cents on the hundred dollars.

The Cincinnati Enquirer should hire some one who is posted to write its editorials on Kentucky politics.

The total assessment of property in this city amounts to $2,152,055, an increase of $64,010 over that of last year.

In 1860 Kentucky produced about one-fourth of the tobacco grown in this country. In 1886 she produced one-third of the total American crop.

The State Board of Equalization added 5 per cent. to the assessment of land in Bracken County, and 16 per cent. to that of personality, making the total assessment $2,848,427.

The Democrats of the district composed of the counties of Bracken, Pendleton and Grant will nominate a candidate for State Senator, June 22nd. The fight is between Bradford, of Bracken, and Simon, of Pendleton.

UNQUESTIONABLY, the Democratic State Convention at Louisville was the most brilliant body of men ever assembled in Kentucky. The Times is led to remark: "Like her whisky, Kentucky Democracy improves with age."

The Hines and Harris delegates ought to have taken the BULLETIN's advice, and settled their differences here at home. The convention at Louisville recognized both factions by giving each half the vote of the county—just about what we suggested in the first place.

MT. STERLING has a Justice of the Peace who overrides the decision of the Court of Appeals. This Justice, "Squire Stofor" by name, has released Cornhillson from jail on a writ of habeas corpus, and the affair is the sensation of the hour at that place. Cornhillson was serving a three-years' sentence for cowhiding the late Judge Reid.

THE PLATFORM

Of Principles Adopted by Kentucky Democrats in Convention at Louisville.

We declare our confidence in the integrity, and conscientious devotion to duty, of President Grover Cleveland, and congratulate the country and the party upon the accession of a Democratic administration national, economic and clean; and we particularly applaud the President for the fidelity and courage with which he has protected the Treasury from pillage by his exercise of the veto power.

We favor honest civil service reform; by which we mean the enforcement of the faithful performance by persons appointed to office of all public duties entrusted to them, and to this end, as well as to the maintenance of the spirit of our representative form of government, we demand the strictest measure of personal and party responsibility, and are opposed to the substitution, in room of this, of life tenure, a civil pension list, and all other appendages of a bureaucratic system foreign to the genius of our institutions and people.

We declare the honest money of the Constitution good enough for the people as expressed in gold and silver, and paper convertible into coin on demand.

We sympathize most earnestly with the people of Ireland in their struggle for local self-government, and we unite with the friends of liberal progress in all parts of the world in denouncing the coercive measures now pending in the British Parliament as a monstrous crime against a brave, generous and long-suffering people, an obstruction to human freedom, abhorrent to the spirit of liberty in every land.

We view with alarm the growing tendency among certain classes of citizens to seek the aid and bounty of Federal Government, and as an incident of this tendency to enlarge the powers granted, and to multiply powers never contemplated by the Constitution, and we re-assert the time-honored Democratic doctrine, that "all powers not delegated to the United States nor prohibited by the States are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

We denounce the present war tariff, laid to confuse as well as to harass the people, as a masterpiece of inequality and false pretense. It has been maintained by a selfish and false theory of protection, which robs the many to enrich a few. It has piled up in the national treasury a surplus which menaces the prosperity of all classes and every industry. We demand the immediate reduction of this war tariff not merely as an act of redress to the people promised by all parties, but as the only safe and just method of reducing the surplus; and in making such reduction we demand further that the taxes shall first be abolished, or lowered upon the necessities of life; and, finally, we re-assert the constitutional and Democratic doctrine that taxes should be first levied exclusively for public purposes, and limited to the requirements of the Government economically administered.

The action of the Democrats in the House of Representatives, in reclaiming from railroad and other corporations nearly one hundred million acres of land granted to them by the Republican party, is heartily indorsed and approved. We approve of such legislation by Congress as shall effectually protect the public land from active entry and ownership, and preserve the public domain as homesteads for the people. Not another acre should be granted to railroads or other corporations, or to speculators.

Freedom of labor is essential to the contentment and prosperity of the people. Workingmen should be protected against the oppressions of combinations and monopolies, and we recommend to the next General Assembly the passage of such laws as will guarantee to workingmen the most favorable conditions for their labor in the matter of proper ventilation and other safeguards for life and health in mine and factories, and the sure and prompt payment of wages, and also such laws as will facilitate the collection and dissemination of information relating to the interests of labor, and provide for the submission of all questions of dispute between employers and employees under just regulations to impartial arbitration.

We are opposed to the importation of contract and ill-paid labor from abroad; to the employment of young children in mines and factories; to any unfair competition of contract with free labor, and we favor the enactment of such laws as will effectually carry out these views.

We favor the development of all the resources of our State, and approve all efforts to advance the material prosperity and spread abroad the fame of our mineral wealth; that we indorse all legitimate endeavors that may be made for the advantage to the State in securing more good citizens and the investment of more capital in our midst.

The Democratic party, in convention assembled, indorses the honest, faithful and economical administration of State affairs as conducted by our distinguished Governor, J. Proctor Knott, and other State officers.

Sale of the Chattaroi Road.

The Chattaroi Road, extending from Ashland to Richardson, Ky., was sold Thursday at foreclosure sale at the United States courthouse door, Covington. The road, which is only fifty miles in length, is destined to form a link in the proposed Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago Road which is to extend from Charleston, South Carolina, to a connection with the Maysville and Big Sandy at Ashland, Ky. At Thursday's sale the property was knocked down to George C. Wood, who represents the bondholders. The price paid was $750,000, for which amount the road, all lands owned by the company, six locomotives, twenty-six box-cars, and 113 coal and platform and six passenger cars were secured. Under the terms of the sale the purchaser was required to pay $50,000 in cash Thursday, and deposit one hundred of the first mortgage bonds with Special Master Northrup, who conducted the sale. John Carlisle and several other Cincinnatians are interested in the property, and will put it in the new Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago Company. Work is now progressing on the C., C. and C., and it is expected the entire line will be completed and in operation within three years.

"Nip't in the Bud!"

Sad to say, many a good thing attains to nothing more than a fair beginning. On the other hand it is a matter for congratulation that the growth of some evil things may be also promptly frustrated. A large proportion of the cases of the most wide-spread and fatal of diseases—consumption have their inception in nasal catarrh. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is pleasant, soothing and effectual. Try it. It has cured thousands. All druggists.

The Ripley Bee and Times advocates a whipping-post for chronic law-breakers.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR NOTES.

It is a matter of great wonderment to working people why it is that so many merchants and dealers who depend on the local patronage of the toilers for nine-tenths of their business are not more generally in sympathy with the efforts of organized labor to better its condition and increase wages. Working men and women buy their food and raiment at home as a matter of necessity, while the wealthy and aristocratic nabobs are so high-toned that they do not encourage home enterprise, but go or send to Cincinnati to trade, which is of no earthly benefit to home merchants. Occasionally these parsimonious individuals, who pride themselves on their fat bellies and large bank accounts, will buy a pound of tea or an ounce of allspice of the home dealer, when their supply runs short. Still, the same merchants will scrape and bow and make blooming idiots of themselves every time one of these money-power drones comes into their stores, and make a great fuss over them simply because they wear fine clothes and have plenty of ill-gotten wealth.

A Printer's Error.

Sweet are the uses of adversity, the printer's copy said, but he set it up, sweet are the uses of advertising. Sweet, indeed, to those who in sickness and suffering have seen the advertisement of some sovereign remedy, which upon that trial has brought them from death's door. "The best thing I ever saw in my paper was the advertisement of Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery'." is again and again the testimony of those who have been healed by it of lung disease, bronchial affections, tumors, ulcers, liver complaints and the ills to which flesh is heir.

Wonderful Cures.

C. Pecor & Co.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell, & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Want Minister Phelps Recalled.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The Home Rule club of this city last night took into consideration the statement of Minister Phelps to the effect that "Americans, as a rule, are not in favor of Home Rule in Ireland." It was decided to ask Secretary Bayard if such statement was correct, and, if so, "Resolved, That Mr. Phelps no longer represents the people of the United States, and consequently should be recalled from the English coast."

No Use Discussing the Subject.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 7.—The West Side Turner society last night tabled Mayor Walber's resolution disavowing sympathy with the Chicago Anarchists, and will discuss the subject no further. The majority of the members are not in sympathy with the Anarchists, but it was thought unwise to precipitate a debate in the society when there was no particular object to be gained by it.

New York's Legislature.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 7.—An amendment to the Ives pool bill has been adopted by the senate judiciary committee, limiting pool selling to thirty days on each track, each racing association to select the days on which it will sell pools. THE young ladies of Sardis and Murphysville are working hard to secure Rev. Mr. Condit a good audience at each of the above places, to hear his famous illustrated lecture, and to see the many ingenious devices belonging to "The Tabernacle and Its Court," a beautiful model of which he will exhibit next Tuesday night in Sardis, and Wednesday night in Murphysville, for the benefit of the churches in which the lectures are given. Encourage the young people by buying tickets from them, and thus help them in their attempt to brighten up their churches.

We trust we may not be thought too presumptive in claiming that HECHINGER'S is a household word throughout this entire section. Our reputation for giving our patrons Better Goods for less money than they can possibly get anywhere else is so firmly established that we can easily afford to pass unnoticed the frantic efforts and ill-natured remarks nowadays so common in the bombastic advertisements of the average ready-made clothing dealer. The facts remain undisturbed: that, owing to buying our material direct from the mills and importers, manufacturing the goods in our own house, making and trimming our garments equal to Custom work, and selling the best class of Tailor-made Clothing (many of them Silk and Satin lined) at prices you have to pay elsewhere for slop-shop work, is the motive that brings the trade to our house.

We shall continue to notify the public, from time to time, of the arrival of our Summer-wear Specialties. We are to-day showing a line of Woolen Coats and Vests, in light shades, that are the handsomest things out. They are confined to our house, yet the price on them is very low. MARSHALL HALL, son of Professor C. J. Hall, has been placed in charge of the Maysville & Big Sandy telegraph office at this place. He is but twelve years of age, but understands the manipulation of the keys. Maysville now has, in all probability, the youngest and the oldest operator in the State, or in the Ohio Valley.

THE connecting track between the Kentucky Central and Maysville and Big Sandy railroads has been located in the past few days. The survey leaves the first named road at a point near the round house, and passes through the property of George T. Wood and then across the creek bottoms. The right of way through Mr. Wood's property is to be settled by arbitration.

THERE has been a number of predictions that the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad, when completed, will drive the local packets to other trades. The following from the Pomeroy Telegraph is pertinent to the question, and tells how the railroads and steamboats are getting along up that way: "Many people predicted that when the Ohio River Railroad got into operation and the river mail transferred to it from the steamer Lizzie Bay that the boat would have to go out of the Parkersburg and Middleport trade. But with Captain George McClintock on the roof, John Deem and Frank Thorn in the office, and Charley Day in charge of the cabin, she is still doing a satisfactory freight and passenger business."

THE WAR CLOUD GROWING

NOT ALL PEACE BETWEEN THE FRENCH AND GERMANS.

A Belief That Hostilities Will Break Out
During the coming summer—An Opera
Suppressed by the French Government.

Death of a Novelist—Foreign News.
PARIS, May 7.—Paris has been much excited by the events on the frontier. The Schnaebel incident is only a small feature in the history of irritating troubles along the boundary line. Some of the most conservative of the English papers are beginning to think that the tension of feeling between France and Germany has become so great that actual hostilities may ensue during the summer. Although the French officials and the newspapers have been very moderate in tone, yet the people have been very much excited and are not showing the same self-control. It is now proposed in many French circles to proceed against the German residents in Paris as an offset for the Schnaebel affair.

If the German courts should continue the trial against Schnaebel and render a judgment against him in contumacy, it is probable that the case against d'Eyrolles, the clerk who was recently dismissed from the French war office for furnishing information to the German government, would be reopened and he would be prosecuted for treason. The irritability of the French has again been shown on the occasion of the production of Wagner's opera, "Lohengrin." This has been given during the last two evenings. It has been an artistic success. The musical critics and art lovers have been delighted with the opera, and it has obtained general praise. The lower classes of Paris, however, have been very indignant. The audience upon both nights has been hooted and pelted by the mob while making their way to the theater.

The government had at first forbidden the production of this opera pending the settlement of the Schnaebel affair and only gave a reluctant consent after the latter had been released. The objection on the part of the authorities the production of the opera has been not so much on account of its authorship but rather for the opportunity which it afforded to the mob for anti-German demonstrations. Wednesday night's scenes about the Eden theater were more tumultuous than the night before. If the opera had been produced last night there would have been a great demonstration, and it is possible that the mob would have attacked the theater. The French government yesterday afternoon interposed by issuing an order that the opera should not for the present be given again so as to avoid the scenes of excitement which would otherwise inevitably have resulted.

In an interview last night Premier Goblet told M. Lamoureux that if he determined to continue "Lohengrin" the government would afford him every protection. The premier urged him, however, to withdraw the opera, promising that means would be adopted to enable him to recover any loss. He warmly thanked M. Lamoureux for his sacrifice in the interest of peace and quiet.

International College Race.
LONDON, May 7.—As has already been announced, rowing men as well as yachtsmen are likely to be treated this summer to a contest between the best crews of the representative universities of England and America. A race over the famous course on the Thames between Harvard eight and a picked crew from Cambridge university, England, will close the season's sport with an event that will make the summer of '87 memorable to sportsmen. Both Harvard and Cambridge are anxious to measure sweeps, and there is no reason why the race will not be rowed early in September, except the possible contingency of the lack of funds. President Bristowe, of the University club, and stroke of the crew, who was seen by the correspondent yesterday, who made a special trip from London to Cambridge for the purpose, voices the enthusiasm of the English oarsmen, and says that nothing remains to perfect the arrangements for the race except the details of the trip and the raising of the necessary money. Harvard will do all that is possible to facilitate matters, and it is little less than certain that the Thames will see both crews contending for international honors.

Italy Asks an Explanation.
ROME, May 7.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday, Signor Deserti gave notice that he would question the government respecting the action of the Spanish government in authorizing the formation of a coal mining station on the Red Sea. The Italian authorities have asked Spain for an explanation. It is believed that the spot chosen for the station had already been claimed by Italy.

Notes From Vienna.
VIENNA, May 7.—The Duchess of Cumberland, who has been confined in a lunatic asylum is improving.
It is reported that a Vienna jeweler has been commissioned by the Orleans family to bid for the French crown jewels.

Reward for Saving the Czar's Life.
ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—Gen. Grosser has been presented with $100,000 roubles by the czar, and the czar has fixed his pension at 8,000 roubles per annum as a recompense for arresting the nihilists implicated in the recent attempt on the czar's life.

Death of a Novelist.
LONDON, May 7.—James Grant, the novelist, is dead. He was sixty-four years old.

Rain and Thunder Storm.
BUFFALO, N. Y., May 7.—At 3 o'clock this morning a terrific thunder storm swept over Buffalo. An empty cattle barn on Sycamore street was struck by lightning and entirely destroyed. Two dwelling houses at East Buffalo and the steeple of St. John's German church, on Hickory street, was also struck by lightning, but the damage was not serious. The total rainfall was 55-100th of an inch.

Striking Hungarians Go Back Home.
CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 7.—About 100 Hungarians in the Mount Pleasant coke district left yesterday for their native land. Large numbers have purchased tickets here. They say that the strike will last five or six months, and that they can live cheaper during that time by going to their own country and returning at the end of the strike. There is no change in the situation to-day.

An Annual Banquet.
BOSTON, May 7.—The annual banquet of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity at the Hotel Vendome last night was presided over by Hon. Joseph H. Choate, of New York. Speeches were made by Mr. Choate, Rev. E. E. Hale, Rev. Phillips Brooks and others.
